- Who We Are: Therapy Aid Coalition is a volunteer-based collective of experienced, licensed private-practice therapists committed to providing free or low-cost online therapy to essential workers across the United States and residents in CA and CO impacted by recent wildfires. Therapy Aid Coalition, ia a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization.
- Mission: To develop a national network of psychotherapists, capable of responding to crises that occur within the United States.
- Vision: To eliminate common obstacles such as cost and accessibility that can prohibit clients from receiving therapeutic services.
- History: Established in March 2020 in response to the COVID-19 crisis, expanded services in September 2020 to include additional national crises.
- Headquarters: Boulder, Colo.
- Leadership: Founded by Jennifer Silacci, LCSW-R, the organization is led by an Advisory Board and a team of volunteers.
- Volunteers: Therapy Aid Coalition is volunteer-created and run including approximately 3,500 licensed private practice therapists across all 50 states who have volunteered to provide pro bono or low-cost, short-term, therapy services.
- Services: Qualified users who visit the Find A Therapist portal can be quickly matched with three participating therapy providers, simply by entering basic information such as budget, location and level of need.
- All therapists who have volunteered to be part of our network are offering four 45-minute sessions ranging from $0 to a maximum of $50 per session.
- Therapist Resources: Therapy Aid Coalition provides training and support for its network of participating therapists through a private, online portal plus professional workshops and continuing education opportunities.
